MONTHLY PLANNER FOR NOVEMBER
Grade IX (2021- 22)

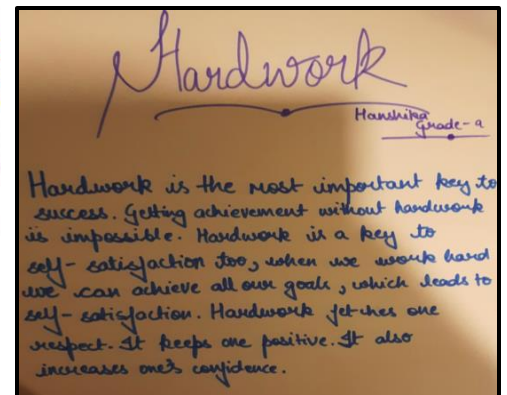

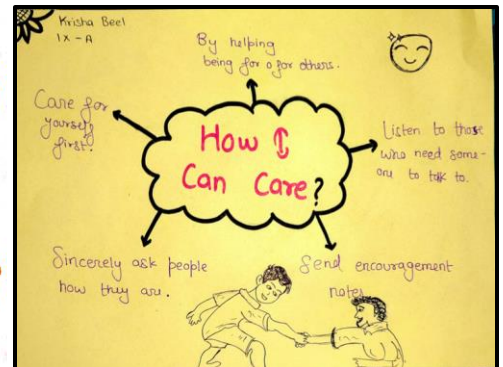

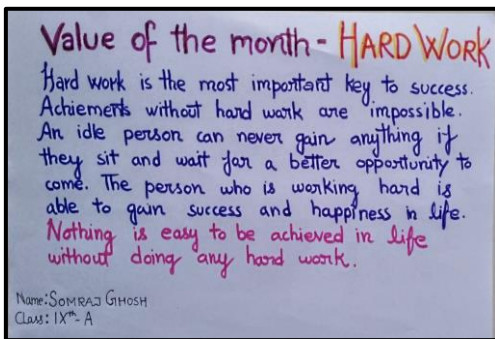

“Celebrations infuse life with passion and purpose. They summon the human spirit.”
- Terrence E. Deal

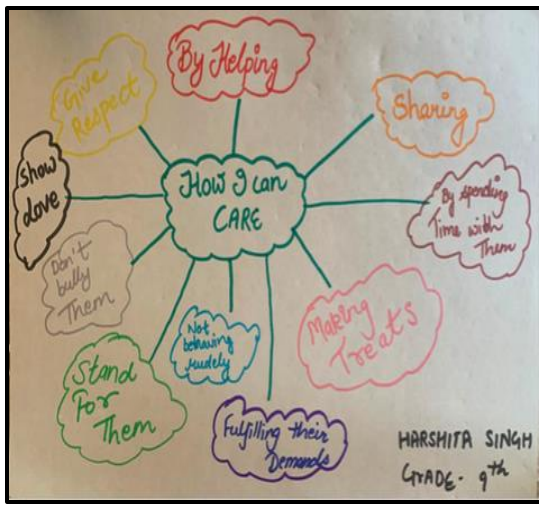

Dear Parents,

The month of November brings in cheer and joy as it ushers in the festive season. It is the month of compassion and thus the special week of the month ‘Caring and Sharing’. The students made a poster on ‘How I can Care’ where they depicted different ways in which they could show this spirit towards others. It was followed by a discussion where they gave justification to their thoughts. The month of October started with the Term I Examinations and the students reflected on their performance through the value of the month- ‘Hardwork’. They wrote their feelings on how hard work is essential, not just for school examinations, but through life. The values in school help build the basic foundation of the students, which they carry with themselves life long. While studying the chapter Weathering the Storm in Ersama in English, the students presented a role-play to showcase the destruction caused by a cyclone and the preparedness of a community for the disaster. The activity helped hone skills like creativity while writing the script, research skills and teamwork.

Working hard to achieve will help us to gain team knowledge and develop skills that build confidence and self-esteem. Hard work does not only keep you confident but also keeps you positive, healthy, happy & successful. Hard work will help you face the obstacles in your life, so that's why our elders, our parents, teachers say "No pain, No gain!!"

HARDWORK

Hardwork is the key to success. When we do hardwork, we can achieve our goals which leads to self satisfaction. It creates positivity in you. We must always remember that positivity and motivation comes only when we do hardwork. When we work hard we come one step closer to our dreams, that gives us positivity.

Hardwork makes us grow in life. It helps us push our limits and do better than what we used to do. When we work hard, we learn many things, and it makes us grow in life. It makes you respected person in society.
