Dear Parents,
Greetings!

Let's spark up October and make it better than September. Welcome to the new and fresh month of October, which is full of festivities. October is a month of vibrant festivals and bountiful celebrations. The month of October brings together national and religious festivals. Gandhi Jayanthi- the birth anniversary of the Father of the Nation, Navratri, Dussehra, Durga Pooja, and Valmiki Jayanti

The month of September reflected academic rigors as the students appeared for their Term I examination after a thorough recapitulation of the Term I syllabus. Along with this, they participated in Hindi Diwas celebrations, where the students took part in "Hasya Kavita Lekhan". The creativity and eloquence of the poetry was praiseworthy.

In order to honor the acts of bravery and sacrifice of the officers and personnel of the Armed Forces, the students of IHS were motivated to do projects and activities based on Gallantry Award winners. They were engaged in various activities like poem composition, paragraph and essay writing, painting, and multimedia presentations under the CBSE Project Veer Gatha Edition 3.0.

Swachhata Pakhwada, CBSE activity, was conducted for the students. Students were sensitized about hygiene and the importance of cleanliness. Swachhata Pledge was taken, where students promised to keep the planet clean and green.

Teachers' Day is held every year throughout the country on September 5th. Students express their gratitude and appreciation for their teachers on this day. This day is dedicated to Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, – second President of India. The Student Council, along with students of Grades X and XI, marked this day by making it special for their teachers. Taking over as teachers, Grade X and XI students gave the teachers an opportunity to enjoy this special day.

Prisha Singhal, Disha, Kanika Kumari and Kamakshi of Grade IX participated in CBSE Reading Challenge on 25th September 2023. This challenge was organized to provide students with the opportunity to demonstrate their skills in reading and understanding the English and Hindi language respectively.

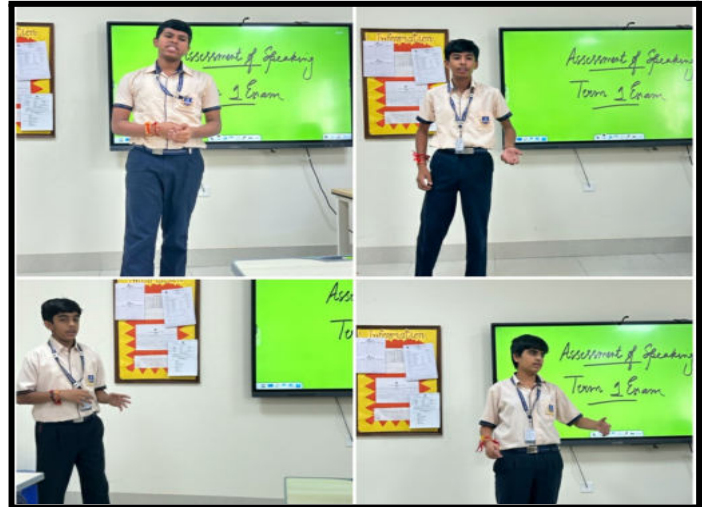

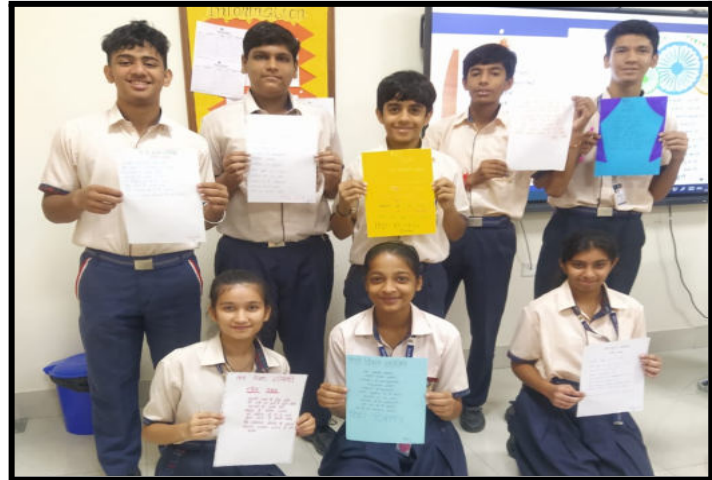

CBSE has clearly outlined the significance of speaking and listening skills as part of co-scholastic areas of achievement by every learner. Assessment of Speaking and Listening Skills was conducted as a part of their subject enrichment activity in English to assess their proficiency level in the language with the objective that they are able to interpret what is being said and are able to express themselves well.

In Economics, the students revised Term 1 syllabus through peer teaching.

Value of the Month: Family- The students were also engaged in a group discussion on the value of the month- Family, where they shared their personal experiences of how family is important to them. Support from the family during exam time was common to all of them and was very relevant to this month.
