Dear Parents,

Greetings!

December month brings colder temperatures, shorter days, and a festive atmosphere with decorations and lights. Additionally, December marks the end of the calendar year, often prompting reflection and celebrations.

The month of November was full of preparations for the biggest event of the school- the Annual Day. Students and teachers have been busy practicing, ensuring that they give their best on the stage, with the costumes, lights and music. The students are eager to showcase their talents and to dazzle you with their performance. We look forward to seeing you at the Annual Day.

Halloween celebration was a blast! Creating recycled bottle Halloween crafts and getting into spooky characters must have been a lot of fun for the kids. And, of course, dancing adds a lively touch to the festivities. Kids had a blast with their scary look.

Celebrating Sharing and Caring, the little ones participated in Sharing My Toy activity which was a heartwarming experience for the children. Learning about sharing not only promoted positive social behavior but also strengthened the bonds among friends. Making thank-you cards with earbud painting was a creative and thoughtful way to express gratitude to their friends. It not only enhanced their artistic skills but also reinforced the importance of acknowledging and appreciating the support they receive from others.

Parent involvement activities, especially during festive celebrations like Diwali, create meaningful memories for both children and parents. Students crafted a beautiful toran with mothers which added a personal touch to the festivities and fostered a sense of togetherness. The colorful lanterns, decorative diyas, and handmade cards added a personal and creative touch to the festivities. The exchange of handmade cards is a thoughtful way to convey Diwali wishes and blessings to friends and family. The lights and decorations symbolize the victory of light over darkness and good over evil, reflecting the essence of the festival.

Letters (U, D, P, B, R) and the number 9 were introduced through activities. Hands-on learning not only makes the educational process more enjoyable but also enhances the retention of new concepts by providing a tangible and memorable experience for the children.

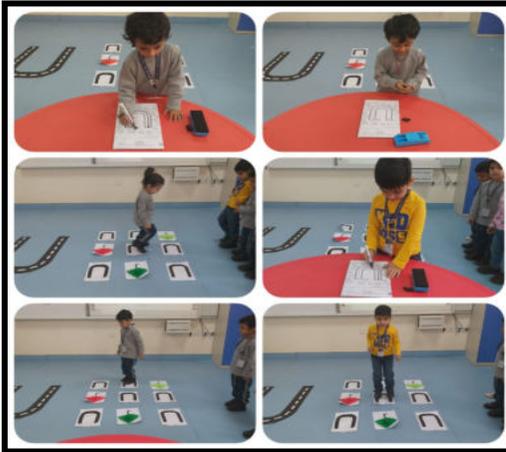

Exploring the theme of seasons was an excellent way to introduce the young learners to the concept of time, weather changes, and associated clothes. They made beautiful umbrella craft with pasting paper cutouts of different seasons. This approach not only made the learning experience more tangible but also encouraged them to be curious about the world around them.

Pink is indeed a color that is often associated with sweetness, beauty, and a sense of calm. Its soft and gentle hues can evoke feelings of warmth and tenderness. Creating a beautiful pink butterfly and attaching a pink lollipop was a fun and imaginative project for them. These activities not only contribute to their artistic development but also enhance their fine motor skills and coordination. Additionally, they also made real life connections with pink colour.

December is the most wonderful time of the year as it brings in ‘Christmas cheer’, as it is the season to be jolly. It is that feeling of joy, warmth and nostalgia people feel when the jingle bells start jingling.

*May the Christmas Season bring only happiness and joy to you and your family.
Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!*
