MONTHLY PLANNER FOR NOVEMBER
Grade XII-COMMERCE (2025-2026)

"You don't have to be great to start, But you have to start to be great. "
- Zig Ziglar

Dear Parents,
Greetings!

We welcome you to the month of November, which marks the beginning of celebrations and festivals. The month of November marks the culmination of autumn and the advent of winter. The festive season is in full bloom, and 'The Festival of Lights' celebrates the victory of good over evil. The month of November celebrates Haryana Day, Children's Day, and Constitution Day.

The month of October ushers in the festive season and the spirit of caring and sharing. To express our love and gratitude to the members of society by sharing and caring for them, the school organised a donation drive for the old and destitute people of Earth Saviours Foundation. The school organized a visit to Earth Saviours' Foundation to spread love and joy among the old and destitute people. The visit helped the students understand that festivals are a way to spread joy and happiness among all.

As part of the Caring and Sharing Week, a joyful Potluck was conducted where students brought homemade dishes, celebrating the values of kindness, cooperation, and sharing.

Term I examination sheets were shared with parents during the Parent-Teacher Meeting held on October 11, providing them an opportunity to review and discuss their ward's performance.

Term I Result on ERP: Term I results were published on the ERP system on 17th October 2025, allowing students and parents to review academic performance. This transparency helped in identifying areas of improvement and planning for future academic goals.

The Swachhata Pakhwada and Swachhata Hi Sewa involved the students and teachers taking a pledge to cleanliness. It promoted the virtue of personal as well as social hygiene among the students. The students were engaged in activities and were also told about the importance of cleanliness and encouraged to keep their surroundings litter-free.

Inter-house Rangoli Competition to mark the Diwali celebration was organized for the students, wherein Purvi Khanduja, Jaagni, and Palak Kumari participated in the Rangoli competition, showing where they showcased their creativity, teamwork, and artistic skills through beautiful and colorful designs. Palak Kumari of Warriors House secured the Second Position, and Jaagni of Champions House secured the Third Position in it.

As the syllabus is completed, vigorous revisions are being conducted, guiding the students to make them prepare for their upcoming Pre Board and CBSE Board Examinations.

In Business Studies and Accountancy, students were introduced to the sample papers. In English, Role Play – Educating through Enacting was conducted with reference to the chapter– ‘The Interview’ in Grade XII NCERT textbook. This activity was done to enable the students to understand the interview process as portrayed in the chapter. The objective of this event was to unveil the diverse competencies of students and also to help them develop necessary language skills.

Values are an integral part of the curriculum at Imperial Heritage School. “Values reflect what is important to the way you live and work”. The value of the month was Gratitude. The students discussed that gratitude is one of the most important human emotions, and we should express our gratitude for all that we have.

Maadhyam 2025 – Reboot the Bard: Speak, Create, Evolve:

“All the world’s a stage, and all the men and women merely players.” – William Shakespeare

The 5th edition of Maadhyam at Imperial Heritage School was a magnificent celebration of creativity, intellect, and imagination. This year’s theme, “Reboot the Bard – Speak, Create, Evolve,” invited students to rediscover Shakespeare — not as a figure confined to history, but as a timeless voice that continues to inspire, challenge, and transform minds.

Through a series of innovative and thought-provoking events such as Bard’s Little Beasts – The Animal Parade of Shakespeare, Shakespeare Puppet Parade, Silent Skits of the Bard, Shakespeare Insult Contest, Dancing Through Drama, Bard Battles, and The Bard’s Book Trailer, students from 15 schools showcased their artistic flair and critical understanding of the Bard’s enduring legacy. Each event offered a unique blend of performance, creativity, and interpretation, breathing new life into Shakespeare’s words for a new generation.

IHS News –

We are thrilled to announce that IHS has begun preparations for its 5th Annual Day Celebration! This much-awaited event promises to be a grand showcase of our students’ talents, creativity, and hard work. The entire school is buzzing with excitement as students, teachers, and staff come together to make this celebration truly memorable. We look forward to an evening filled with joy, performances, and cherished memories that highlight the spirit and unity of our IHS family.
